

HISTORY OF THE ADVENT CAMP MEETING GROUNDS DISCUSSION

For more than 100 years, religious gatherings have taken place each summer at the Advent Camp Meeting Grounds in White River Junction. Please join the Hartford Historic Preservation Commission and the Advent Community for a presentation on the history of the Advent Meeting Grounds by Architectural Historian Brian Knight.

Wednesday, July 20, 2016

6:30 p.m.

Advent Meeting Grounds Tabernacle

150 Advent Lane, White River Jct., VT

The Town of Hartford received a Certified Local Government grant from the Vermont Division for Historic Preservation to research and prepare a National Register Historic District Nomination for the Advent Camp Meeting Grounds. Brian Knight was hired by the Town to undertake the project.

Please call 295-3075 or e-mail mosborn@hartford-vt.org if you have any questions.